*"I like taking the guns early." Take the guns first, go through due process second.
Take the firearms first, then go to court." ~ Donald Trump*

Most Americans are consumed by stupidity, but blessed by all the capabilities of an indifferent moron. How else could such a large population falsely considered to be strong and free, succumb to their own enslavement so easily? Once again, the political selection process is over, and now the reality of evil can be cranked up to high gear while the sheep collectively bleat and baa as they continue to hide from the truth. Ah, the essence of ignorance abounds, but the stink of it is covered up by pure mindlessness.

Well, here we are again, the red team bathing in the slimy excrement of 'victory,' while the blue team is heartbroken because their choice, an idiot and communistic harlot, is out on her ass. In a contest such as this, everybody loses, but who cares, so long as the show goes on. In this particular selection, the liar in chief is once again Trump, but all his followers have lost their memory of his past exploits; ruining their lives, spending more than any ruler ever has, warp-speeding to at last count, 23 million deaths due to injection, promoting and allowing a completely fake pandemic, and lying at each and every opportunity. So good luck this time around, but I am sure all will be perfect for the MAGA Cult; Maniacal Asses Gone Apeshit.

The selection committee this time was Zionist Israel, billionaire tech magnates, and the 'deep state' whores who pull all the strings of presidents and politicians, and especially after Tuesday's fiasco, Trump. Do I hear a yippee from the crowd, or is that just the breath being knocked out of the proverbial 'make me great again' crowd. Usually a wait and see attitude brings some hope of survival unscathed, but in this case, wait and see will be deadly.

Trump claims his loyalty first and foremost to the evil Zionist Israel. His support is all in, so apparently, genocide is one of his platforms, but do not expect future death and destruction to be isolated to the mostly innocent Palestinians, because he will be looking for many more to kill. War, after all, is the health of the State, but it is no longer just brutal weaponry blowing up innocents, including women and little children. (Except by Israel) Today, there are many ways to kill while hiding the truth, and AI plays a major role in this production, along with weather geoengineering and modification, poisonous spraying of the skies and earth, manufactured fires, toxic fatal injections, bioweapons, destruction of food production and distribution leading to starvation, and of course economic suicide. But fear not, as your dollars will continually be poured in by the billions to Israel, along with bombs and missiles as well.

Also, brain chip and surveillance pro Elon Musk will be Trump's right hand man, alongside of course, Zionist Miriam Adelson, who between them spent almost a quarter of a billion dollars to place their boy in office. Who said you could not buy a politician anymore? Well, only a dumbass would make such a statement, but then that is the most common affliction present today, and the only disease that can jump from one to another by magical transference. But there will be no Trump 'vaccine' coming to cure this ailment, so I hope it does not metastasize too quickly. Oops, too late!

I am really not trying to make light of the terror facing us, or maybe I am, but sometimes it is necessary to do so in order to simply stay sane. Many it seems are all set to give over their souls to Trump as their new 'god,' trusting that this monster will be their savior. The other side will continue to hate and despise him, but for the wrong reasons. This is true, because both sides are the same, whether they can grasp such an obvious concept or not. Rulers exist because people allow them to exist, and picking sides is just a way to fool the fools into believing that their political 'god' is better than your political 'god.' Next time the teams will once again change, but all will stay the same, except worse, as happens in every 'election.'

I will not address all the carnage that is likely coming in this short overview, but it will not be long before the veil is removed and the stark truth revealed. The first order of business is to watch who Trump puts in his Cabinet positions. A few may be installed as cover, but the ruling side will be evil to the core. In addition, both Trump and Vance are owned by Peter Thiel, along with many other immoral, powerful, and dangerous criminals.

In Trump's last stint as president, he promised to "drain the swamp," but instead he filled it to the brim with scum. Do not expect it to be any different this time, and do not be fooled by some who claim, or are touted to be, saints or the 'good guys.' (Think RFK, Jr. or Musk) There are no 'good guys' in politics, and there has never been.

My only regret about the results of this heinous farce called an 'election,' is that my take was that if Kamala had been selected, the very important, vital, and necessary economic collapse of this nation-state, might have happened sooner, allowing for a real change of tune. But then, who could know which of these evil cretins would be worse, as both are worthless.

I am certain there will be many reports and conversations about what is to come. A few will be accurate and true, but most will be nothing more than propagandized bullshit. I have warned about this governing system for decades, but few listen or do any personal research to discover fact on their own, which is the only way to properly uncover truth.

"The men the American people admire most extravagantly are the most daring liars; the men they detest most violently are those who try to tell them the truth." ~ H. L.
